earned the right to play William A. Larned for the championship title. But Larned defended his title in perfect form and won out easily last Friday. Larned has been champion four years and has been a prominent figure in tennis for more than 20 years. No other tennis player has won so many honors. His play this year betrayed in no manner the fact that he is more than 40 years old. He won the championship title in 1901 from M. D.Whit-

GREAT LIMERICK CONTEST $325.00 PIAN

FIRST PRIZE New Piano Valued at $325

SECOND PRIZE $125 Gredit Certificate

THIRD PRIZE $110 Credit Certificate

FOURTH PRIZE $100 Credit Certificate

AND OVER $10,000 WORTH OF ADDITIONAL PRIZES

A beautiful piano will be given free to the person sending the best line to complete the Limerick verses shown on the coupon below, in accordance with its conditions. Other good lines will be awarded as shown below. Contest free to all. Nothing to pay. Send your answer in early. We have just secured the agency for the famous Hallet & Davis Pianos and the manufacturers have agreed to allow us this large appropriation for advertising and we intend to give it directly to piano buyers through this free Limerick contest to introduce our new line of pianos and to impress our location on the minds of music lovers.

You have the Same Opportunity as Anyone Else to Win

A little thought; a clever line, and you may win the Piano or one of the other prizes. To any home without a piano this contest is the event of a lifetime. We have proved beyond question that the general publicity we receive in bringing our line of Pianos and moderate prices before the public more than repays the large expenditure. This is but natural as we reach only homes interested in Piano buying instead of (as in general advertising) thousands of people who are not interested. We also wish to use the best Limericks for advertising purposes. SOME ONE WILL GET A BEAUTIFUL PIANO ABSOLUTELY FREE JUST FOR WRITING A LINE or one of the other valuable prizes, Hallet & Davis, Kimball, Conway, Bowen, and other planos are sold here on the One Price system and every one the best for the price. You are sure to find just the Piano you want.

THE PRIZES

First prize—A fine new plano valued at $325. Second prize—A certificate of credit for $125. Third prize—A credit certificate for $100. The next four best answers will be given a credit certificate for $90. Following these in groups of 4, each contestant sending in the next best answers will be given a credit certificate for $90. Following these in groups of 4, each contestant sending in the next best answers will be given a credit certificate for $1 less than those previous—that is, four at $89, next four at $88, etc. until the $10,000 has been awarded.

Special Advertising appropriation. In addition to the above prizes the Company will voluntarily issue to each of the remaining contestants a special certificate of credit of not less than $25, as an award for their effort in this contest.

These certificates are good on the purchase of any New Hallet & Davis, Conway or Kimball piano or player piano in our warerooms at regular retail price. Time of certificate is limited. Certificates cannot be applied on any purchase made previous to September 11, 1909. Only one certificate may be applied on the purchase of one piano.

THE JUDGING Disinterested judges will be chosen who will select the winner, and the decision of the judges will be final. All prize winners will be notified. Judges'

But two more weeks of Connecticut league baseball. The curtain will probably ring down with the Senators in the lime light.

Some boob from New Haven has thrown out the scare in that town that Umpire O'Brien robbed the Undertakers of the game here Saturday. Blindness must have affected the artist who contributed the joke for he says that Hilt was fairly struck out in the third inning of the game, and then followed with a hit to right that won the contest. Call again please, two balls were thrown to Hilt by Reisigl, one a strike on which Steinhauser stole second and the other which Hilt nailed out. It further states that Reisigl called further states that Reisigl called O'Brien for an uncalled strike, but such was not a fact. Reisigl seemed to be getting the wrong end of every decision in his own opinion and was fined a V, only after being warned by O'Brien. Rejsigl's abuse of O'Brien was so offensive and continued that the members of his own club had to call him for it. He should have been put out of the grounds.

Bridgeport now looms up last in every league particular, last in the race, last in batting and last in field-

Every team in the league will have reason to remember the season of 1909 which has been marked by many unusual happenings. Hartford appears to be in line to have its first pennant winner in a decade; Holyoke can never forget the hard luck which pulled down Jimmy Sindler, Cy Perkins and "Foot" Ruell, nor will it forget the wonderful home run record made by Perkins: Waterbury can look back with pleasure on Doherty's debut and his rejuvenation of the hopeless tall-enders of 1908, and at the same time shed a few regrets over the fact that week-day baseball was almost entirely eliminated in the closing weeks of the season: New Britain fans can tak about the spasmodic spurts of the Perfectos due to terrific batting and the honor of furnishing the league with its batting leader; New Haven will be able to hear for years the jingle of the big tin can at Savin Rock which has killed off countless amwonderful home run record made by which has killed off countless am-bitious ball tossers in a season; Springfield will be a long time recoving from the grouch caused by the showing of the 1908 champions; North-ampton has a wonderful closing spurt to remember and Bridgeport can re-call that ever-changing pitching staff and the thirty-seventh annual appear-ance of Uncle Jeems O'Rourke. As usual the whole bunch will remember the

POLICE TEAM PLAYS N. R. COPS FINAL - GAME TO-MORROW

The 12:30 o'clock train for New Ha-Baseball and religious services were combined for the first time, it is believed, when Rev. G. L. Morrill deof the Bridgeport Police team and their admirers, for in the afternoon with the New Haven cops at Light-house Point in the last game of the State Policemen's League. Both clubs are tied for last position with twe wins and three defeats aplece, If the locals play half as good as they did in the denied by the Cleveland officials who say that that no deal involving the cleveland baseman was pending, and that no possible proposition would be entertained.

The Final Blow. It is said that often when a woman says "no" she means "yes," but the are signs which discourage even the most hopeful and persistent wooer.

"I didn't so much mind Hetty's saying she'd as soon marry a jump jack as me," said Ethan Hatch for lornly to a sympathetic friend, "nor didn't much care when she said she rather stay at home than go out to Jordan's park with such a slow coach as I was, but when she told me she'd got to help her mother iron wi asked her to go with me down to the Center for some ice cream soda I saw 'twasn't much use hanging on any longer."

Bryant always thought he c write much better poetry than that contained in his "Thanatopsis," which was one of his earliest. During his later days he on several occasions expressed some surprise at the pre particular poem, "when I have do many things better." He believed the translations of Homer to be the be work he ever did.

Wife-I mended the hole in your trousers pocket last night after you had gone to bed. John, dear. Now, am not I a thoughtful little wife? Husband (dubiously)-Well-er-ye-es, you are thoughtful enough, my dear, but how the mischlef did you discover that there was a hole in my pocket?

Sympathetic Courtesy. He who can put real human sympathy into the conventional phrases of courtesy is indeed a man of tact. Le Rire represents a dentist's serv-ant opening the door to a patient. "And whom, sir," asks the servant, bowing low, "shall I have the misery of announcing?"

An Excuse.

Patience—What reason had she for marrying him? Patrice—Why, he had money. Patience That is not a reason; that's an excuse.
